

Smart Growth and Form-Based Codes

Building Livable, Sustainable Communities
City Council Study Session

August 25, 2006

Lessons, Challenges & Opportunities Linking Ecology & Urbanism

Ken Kay, FASLA, CNU

- Founder, Principal Planner and Landscape Architect for Ken Kay Associates 1983 to Present
- Co-Chaired the Environmental Task Force of the Congress for New Urbanism 1994 – 1998
- Recipient of numerous National and State Planning and Design Awards
- Speaker/Facilitator at 3 International, 6 National & 9 Regional conferences within the last 5 years
- Significant published work in books, journals, magazines and newspapers

Coyote Valley

Place, Identity & Environment

Coyote Valley

Property Ownership

Green Framework for Coyote Valley

Environmental Footprint

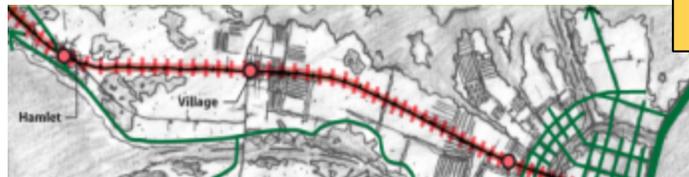

Blue Infrastructure

Public Facilities

Transportation Systems

Green Street Network

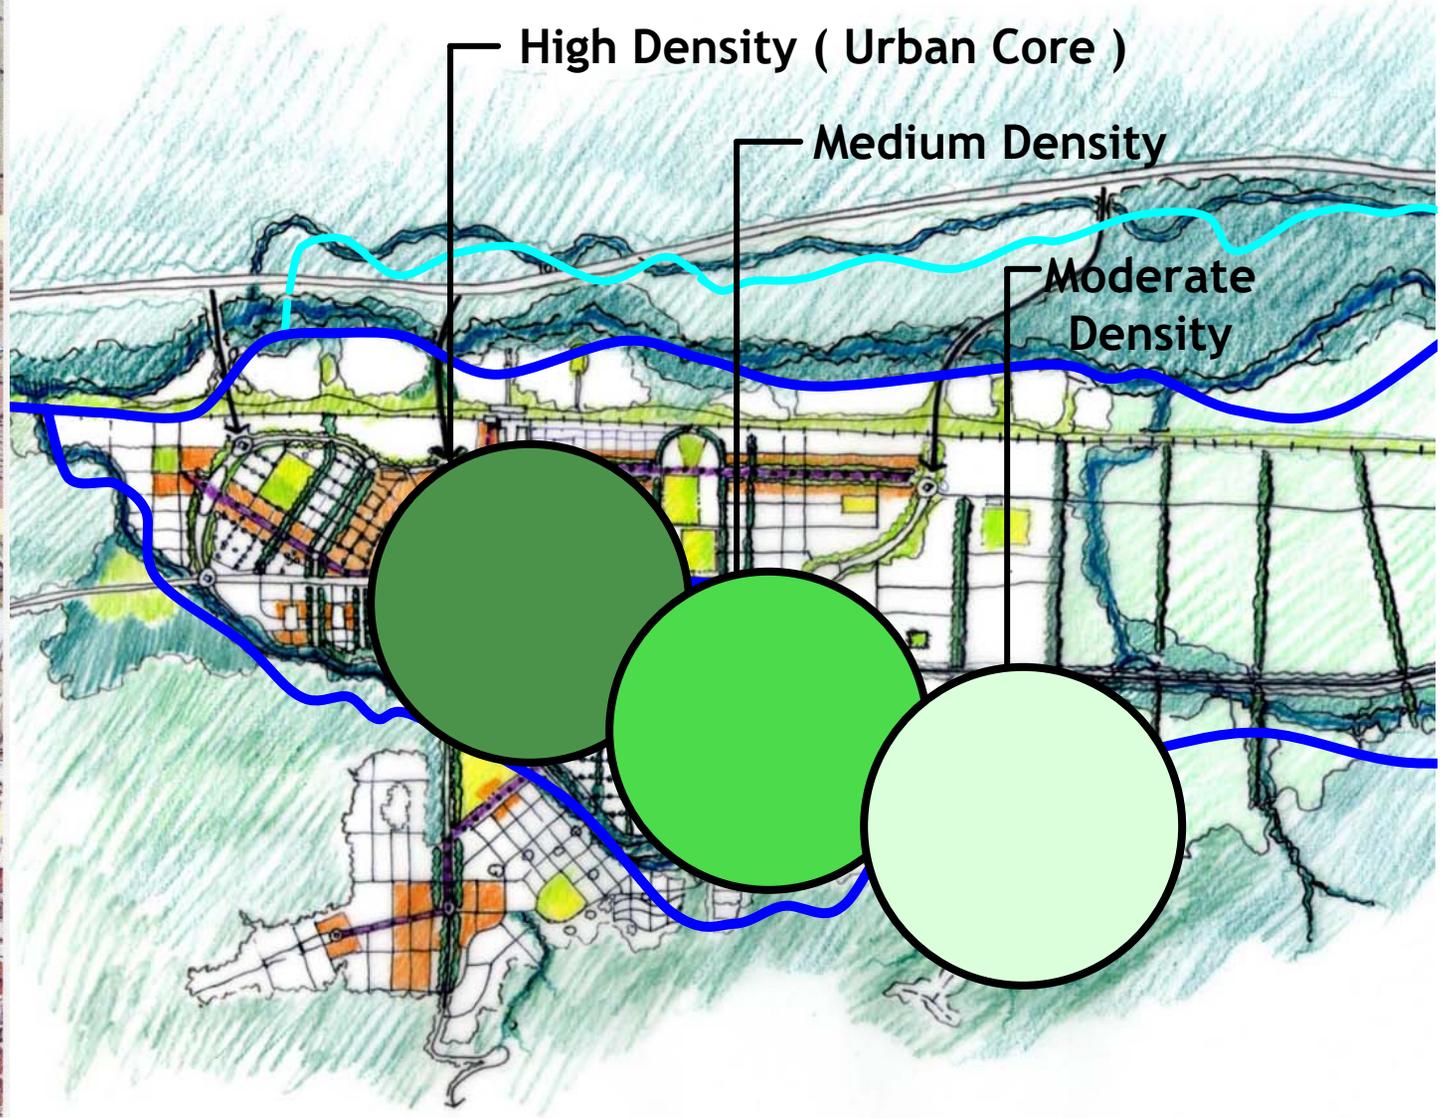

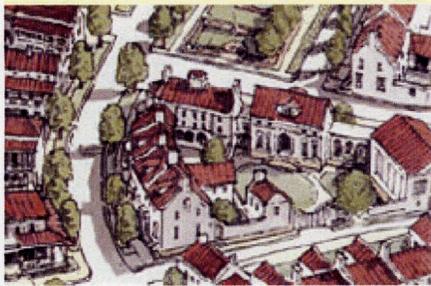

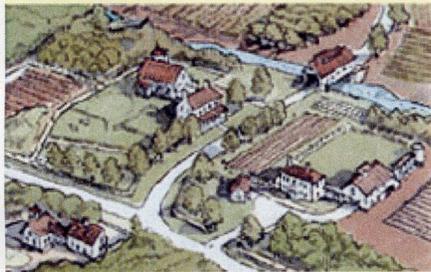

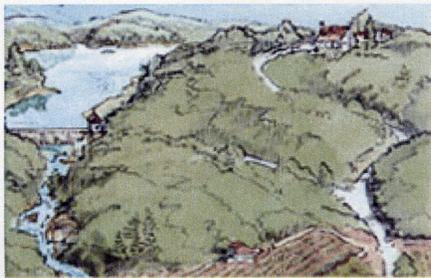

Green Infrastructure

The "Public Realm" of the Specific Plan

Community Transect

Organizing Community Places & Green Systems

Community Transect of Places

